

15 Reasons Why

---

1. Because the struggle is real! And, the source of the struggle is spiritual.
2. Just live long enough to realize that you need help that's bigger than circumstantial, influential, financial, material, etc. What you need is spiritual and God is a Spirit!
3. Because the Bible is the sourcebook for effective living. It provides wisdom, counsel and power (active & alive) for effective, optimized, and maximized living according to the promises of blessing.
4. Because we have to have a global view of life. We are living to live again.
5. Because there you can get the word -The word of empowerment. There's power in the word - just like there's life in the word.
6. Because the enemy is a trickster and a liar! Despite what you think, you are in a war. But the word is truth. It keeps us focused on what is truth not what is trickery!
7. Church ? Where else can we get any sense of moral foundation these days - or even deal with the subject ?
8. To learn how to impact your changing culture. What other institution has this as a direct mission ?
9. To discover the real you !
10. To uncover the promises and the agenda of God.
11. To participate in building something powerful - God's Kingdom.
12. To strengthen the Body of Christ with your gift.
13. To answer spiritual and afterlife questions.
14. To become your personal best – the spiritual side of your strengths and talents.
15. To contribute to the world and benefit society. To make your life count !